

Reilly Brown
4/23/20

For this assignment we were instructed to code a state machine that changes the state of an LED when a button is pushed four times. For my code, I decided to hook up 5 colored LEDs and a button to my Arduino Uno. When the button is pushed, the red light turns on, then the red turns off and the orange turns on and so on. Since I am a lot more comfortable coding for Arduino, this project was a lot easier than expected.

